Gianna Baby Bank – Catholic Care: Over the last few years during the month of May, we had an appeal for baby items to give to local baby banks. This year we are helping the Gianna Baby Bank, a baby bank run by Catholic Care. They help families in the area by supplying much needed items for babies. This appeal is a lovely thing to do during Our Lady's month to help families who are in need. Over the course of the month of May, please consider donating one of the following items for babies by bringing it to either of our churches. The baby bank is looking for: baby toiletries i.e. baby bath, shampoo, sponges etc. Nappies of all sizes but especially the first two sizes. Baby clothes 0-3 only. Thank you to all who help with this appeal!

Gianna: Baby Bank Plus

Piety Stall: There are new items in at the Piety Stall at St Joseph's, including cards for First Holy Communion and wedding cards.

Faith Questions: Fr Tony is doing another Faith Questions session in the St Joseph's Community Room on Wed 7 June at 7:15pm. The Faith Questions Sessions are an opportunity for teens or adult Catholics to explore aspects of their faith they might not know or perhaps wish to learn more about. It's also an opportunity for some socialising! The next session will be an opportunity to bring non Catholic friends along who may be interested in learning more about what Catholicism is and how it's different from other denominations of Christianity. The question will be "Why Be A Catholic?" Sandwiches and refreshments will be provided.

Race Night Parish Fundraiser: We have not had a parish social night to fundraise since COVID, so a few parishioners have organised a Race Night. They have teamed up with The Rotary Club of Keighley, and profits of the evening will be shared equally between both organisations. The Race Night will be held on the evening of Friday 23 June in the function room of the Keighley Civic Centre. Your ticket will include a Pie and Pea Supper (or vegetarian equivalent), and the bar of the Civic Centre will be open during the evening. Tickets will shortly be on sale at £6 per ticket. Doors will open at 7pm, with the first race around 7.30pm. The evening has to close by 11pm. The format will be 7 video races in total, with the chance to own horses and win prizes. There will also be the opportunity to bet on the horse or horses of your choice. We are looking for local businesses to sponsor each of the 7 races. Race sponsorship is £20 per race, and you would get publicity/acknowledgement in the brochures and on the night. Please contact Chris Issott (2issott@gmail.com) if you would like to sponsor a race. We are also looking for people to buy horses for the first 6 Races. Horse ownership costs £5 – for which the owner will get to sit in the Owner's Enclosure for their race drinking bubbly and snacks and the winning owner will get a prize.

Intercessions for Pentecost Sunday (A)

Priest:

The Spirit of God enlightens us with His gifts. We now bring before God our prayers and intentions.

Reader:

For each member of the Church: that we will be renewed by the power of the Holy Spirit. (pause) Lord in your mercy....

For all who worship here in our parish: like the apostles on the day of Pentecost, may we go out and live the Gospel. (pause) Lord in your mercy....

We pray those who are on pilgrimage to Lourdes. May Our Lady gain for them many graces. (pause) Lord in your mercy…

Let us pray for those we know who are sick and in need of our prayers: that God will grant them His healing. (pause) Lord in your mercy…

We pray that the Spirit who raised Jesus from the dead will be granted to all our deceased relatives and friends: that they may too may share in His resurrection. (pause) Lord in your mercy...

In a moment of silence, let us pray for our own intentions. (pause) Lord in your mercy…

We turn to Mary, the Mother of the Church, as we say together, Hail Mary ...

Priest:

Almighty God, today we remember how you sent the Holy Spirit into your Church to bring your saving work to its completion. Hear our prayers which we make through Christ our Lord.

All

Amen
